TITTONI QUIT; ITALY ASKS ALLIED AID

Want Troops of Entente to Force d'Annunzio Out of Fiume

STORIES CONFLICTING
French Ships Threaten to Fire on d'Annunzio if Stores Molested

ROME—Tommaso Tittoni, Italian foreign minister, has resigned because of the Fiume incident, according to an announcement by the Giornale d'Italia.

Appeal to Allies.

LONDON—The Italian government has appealed to the allied powers to send an allied force, exclusive of Italians, to drive d'Annunzio out of Fiume, according to a report here tonight, which is considered reliable.

U. S. Marines Affected?

LONDON—Italy, which was given a free hand to handle the problem arising out of the seizure of Fiume by Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio as a domestic affair, is said in reports current to have made an appeal to the allied powers to take the matter off her hands and sent a force to Fiume to expel the insurgents from the city. It is claimed Italy has stipulated that if such a force is sent to the Adriatic city, it must not include Italian units.

It is improbable, according to reports that American troops will participate in such an operation if it is ordered, there being no soldiers available. American marine contingents have not taken part in any activities there.

Reports from Fiume seem to be conflicting. One states that General Esposito has established a cordon about the city, while the Jugo Slav delegation in Paris asserts d'Annunzio's forces have extended their zone of occupation having advanced into Jugo Slavia Sunday. It appears that the reported blockade of the city is not particularly effective, it being reported that a trainload of supplies has reached Fiume. Another dispatch says four more companies of Italian soldiers have joined Captain d'Annunzio.

Dispatches from Trieste declare the commander of the French ships in the harbor has notified Captain d'Annunzio that if the stores forming the base of the Franco-Serbian troops at Fiume are molested, he will order his ships to open fire on the city.

$415,000 HAUL BY P. O. CLERK FOILED BY LUCK

Package of Currency Consigned Chicago to Whiting is Taken

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO — Three men, one of them John Weida, a postal clerk in the Chicago Postoffice, were arrested here today charged with stealing $415,000 of a shipment of $415,000 from the Federal Reserve bank here to the Standard Oil Company of Indiana at Whiting, Ind. Of the stolen funds, $93,620 was recovered. The remainder, according to a confession of two of the men, was abandoned at the outskirts of Chicago when the automobile in which they were returning from Whiting broke down.

A "piece of police luck" is pointed to as responsible for the arrest of the men. Chicago city detectives unearthed the postal robbery when two of the men, Leo and Walter Phillips, brothers, 25 and 20 years old respectively, were arrested in connection with the robbery of a saloon in which approximately $500 was obtained.

Informed by a "stool pigeon" that the Phillips Brothers were involved in the saloon robbery which occurred later in the day of the holdup at Whiting, the officers at first thought they had stumbled on a big payroll or bank robbery when one found $20,000 in the elder Phillips pocket. A fourth man, said to be the owner of a small farm near Chicago, was being sought early today. Police say they believe most of the missing money was buried on his property. He is said to have been at Whiting with the Phillips brothers.

Dooley Pleads Guilty to Bad Check Charge

LEAGUE VOTE IN THE SENATE DWINDLING

Not Believed That More Than 38 Will Vote for Pact Without Reservations

RIOT IN GALLERIES
Senator Reed's Speech is Cause of the Tumult; Denounces President

Arthur Sears Henning writing in The Chicago Tribune today from Washington says:

While Senator Reed was exhorting President Wilson on his league of nations covenant amid outbursts of enthusiastic approval unparalleled in the senate a series of incidents threw the ranks of the administration supporters into confusion. To the consternation of Democratic senators who have been echoing the president's contentions that the British empire's preponderance of votes is only in the league assembly, Senator Reed produced the copy of a letter signed by Woodrow Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau stating that the British dominions also are eligible to election to the league council.

Shows Power Ceded to Britain

The assembly in which the British empire has six votes to America's one, according to this hitherto unpublished admission by the president, could elect Canada or any other British dominions to the all powerful council of nine in which the British empire then would have two or more votes to America's one.

Senator Ashurst of Arizona, Democrat, telegraphed the president that he and some of his Democratic colleagues will find it impossible to vote against the Johnson amendment, equalizing the voting strength of the United States and Great Britain.

LEVITAN WOULD BRING BANKS TO THE PEOPLE

"Bankers' Small Loans to Laboring Man Will Cultivate Business Relations"

That the distrust of laboring men of bankers is solely the result of a misunderstanding and that "bolshevism is nothing but the philosophy of belligerent disappointment," is the affect of a statement of Solomon Levitan, president of the Commercial National bank, in a letter to the American Bankers' association. The national organization is to hold a meeting at St. Louis on Sept. 29, and Mr. Levitan has written urging that the association take up the subject of making small loans to laboring men and cultivate the business of the working classes.

"The antagonistic attitude of the workingman toward the banks is solely the result of misunderstanding," says Mr. Levitan. "Very few workingmen have come into personal contact with bankers. The man in the factory thinks of the banker as the incarnation of all the evils of capitalism. He has not learned that a banker prospers only in so far as he combines his money with labor, in so far as credit is placed at the disposal of the workingman. He has not learned that a banker wants to loan money, as well as receive money. He thinks of a bank as a place where you put money, not as a place where you get money."

"The workingman has learned to consult a doctor when he is ill; he has learned to consult a lawyer when he is in legal troubles; but he has not learned to consult a banker when he is in financial difficulties. If the bankers of this country would only make a united effort to enlighten the workingmen concerning the real nature of the bankers' business, placing especial emphasis on their willingness to serve and explaining the 'small' loan idea, one great grievance of labor against the so-called capitalist system would vanish."

"Bolshevism, after all, is nothing but the philosophy of belligerent disappointment. Show a man a peaceful way out of difficulties and he won't select a violent way. Most of the workingmen's troubles are financial. Convince him that bankers are willing and eager to help him out of financial difficulties, and his grudge against the government will immediately disappear."

He enclosed a letter containing a money order which shows six trips across the ocean. Good writes that Hofsted gave him the above address last April at Camp Guthrie, St. Nazaire, France, just prior to his leaving for the States with the 35th division.

EVERY PLANT IN GARY AREA WILL CLOSE

—FITZPATRICK
Many Mills Already Stop and Others Work With Reduced Forces

NO VIOLENCE AS YET
Officials Still Differ as to Strength Shown by Both Sides

BULLETIN
PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Secretary Wm. Z. Foster, of the steel workers national committee this afternoon said that according to his reports 327,100 men are participating in the strike. Compared with those issued yesterday, his figures show increases in the Pittsburgh Youngstown, Johnstown, Wheeling, Steubenville, Chicago and Birmingham districts.

Chicago—Between 50,00 and 67,000 workmen idle and practically every steel plant in the Chicago district either closed or operating with a greatly reduced force, quiet reigned today. The only arrest reported was at Waukegan, Ill., where a striker was taken into custody charged with making threats.

There were fewer strikers on the streets in the vicinity of the plants than yesterday and the police experienced no difficulty in maintaining order. John Fitzpatrick, organizer of the steel workers, announced that 67,500 men were idle in the Chicago district and predicted that within a few days every steel plant in this section will be closed down.

Although officials of the steel companies decline to state how many men still are at work they declare that the figures given out by union leaders are greatly exaggerated. An official of the Indiana Steel company at Gary, Ind., stated that not more than 15 per cent of the men in that city had left their posts.

Another report said to come from a minor official of the U. S. Steel corporation placed the total number of men out in the Chicago district at 50,000.

A sympathetic strike of the members of the International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers in the Chicago district was regarded as possible. Engineers at Gary who left their work yesterday, last night reiterated statements that they would remain out. On the other hand, H. M. Comerford, secretary of that union, declared that "Even if this union had a personal grievance it would not strike in the face of a request made by the president of the United States that no action be taken until after he had opportunity to confer with the various parties to the controversy on Oct. 6."

Mr. Comerford reviewed the attitude of the engineers' locals in various steel zones. At Waukegan, Ill., and Youngstown and Steubenville, O., he said the men are willing to work but the mills have been closed by the companies. At Gary, Ind., and Joliet, Ill., certain radicals have ignored the international officers' directions to remain at work he said, and cannot be controlled. Throughout the entire Pittsburgh and Pueblo, Colo., districts Mr. Comerford added, the engineers have remained at work.

The Milwaukee Situation.
MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Only six of the 1,300 employees of the Illinois Steel company have failed to go on strike. T. Heyer, chairman of the pickets committee, said today. "These men went on at 6 a. m.," said Mr. Heyer. "No one reported at 6 p. m. or 10 p. m. Monday. No one belonging to an eight hour shift is at work. The men who went on at 6 a. m. today belong to a 12 hour shift."

All was quiet in the vicinity of the plant.

Hammond, Ind.—The mills in Hammond continue to operate. In East Chicago and Indiana harbor, the Inland Steel, American Foundries, Mark Manufacturing company and Hubbard Steel company are all closed. J. E. Howard, secretary of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers of Indiana Harbor, asserts that all steel fabrication plants in the harbor are closed.

In East Chicago, the Interstate and Republic mills are working under the Amalgamated scale.

NEW CASTLE IS SCENE OF SHOOTINGS

Nine Persons Injured in Fights Last Night; Three May Die
MORE TROUBLE TODAY
Plants Are Closed in Vicinity of Chicago; No Violence Reported

(By the Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Pa.—More rioting occurred today in Farrell where a man was shot and killed last night and several other persons injured. Many shots were fired in the new disturbance today. The police say that at least eleven persons were struck by bullets.

Many Are Shot

NEWCASTLE, Pa.—With state constabulary, 150 deputy sheriffs and scores of policemen patrolling the streets about the steel plants here, the situation following serious rioting last night was slightly improved early today. Nine persons, two women and seven men were shot last night in addition to the stabbing of one policeman and injuring of another with a club in an attack on the plant of the Carnegie Steel company. Three of the injured likely will die, it is said.

Rioting assumed serious proportions late yesterday when rioters stalled workmen on their way to the mills. Thirty persons have been charged with rioting and carrying concealed weapons. Mills are being operated at about 85 per cent capacity according to plant officials.

Says Strike Spreading PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Steel strike conditions in the Pittsburgh district were not greatly changed today, according to reports from both labor and company sources.

Secretary Wm. Z. Foster of the steel workers' national committee said the strike was spreading and that more men were out today not only in the Pittsburgh district but also in outlying sections and in other parts of the country. The Homestead works of the Carnegie Steel company, subsidiary of the U. S. Steel corporation, were practically "dead" he asserted.

Mr. Foster's claims were not borne out by reports coming from the Carnegie Company and from independent company sources.

Trouble Near Buffalo

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Disturbances which began in the vicinity of the Lackawanna steel company's plant last night were continued this morning. A master mechanic was set upon by a crowd and severely beaten. A riot call brought out the police and two men were arrested, charged with rioting.

Switchmen in the South Buffalo railway today quit work when ordered to move cars into the Lackawanna steel company's yards.

The Lackawanna Steel company has virtually ceased operations. It was definitely announced by the Donner Steel company that its plant would be closed tomorrow. The two plants employed about 9,000 men.

Success at Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN—In the Mahoning Valley district, of which Youngstown is the heart, all reports agreed that the strikers had achieved their most marked success. The strike leaders claimed that 55,000 men had quit work and their claims were supported by the fact that many large plants were closed, three in particular, which employ alone 16,500 men. Plants which were still operating had admittedly greatly reduced forces.

WIFE UNTRUE RETURNED HERO GIVEN DIVORCE

Divorce was granted Raymond C. Skinner, in superior court this morning. Judge A. C. Hoppmann states in his findings on the case that Skinner, who was a soldier in the American expeditionary forces in France, was awarded the Croix de Guerre, and cited three times for exceptional bravery. That "owing to religious differences Skinner and his wife are irreconcilable. That Mrs. Skinner did write Skinner, while he was overseas, that she hoped he would not come back so that she could secure his insurance. The stipulations allot Mrs. Skinner $25 a month for care of a child—Raymond."

ARCHIVE SHOWS AUSTRIA GUILT FOR THE WAR

Berchthold Urged That Serbian Demands Be Made Impossible

VIENNA.—There were made public today from the archives of the former Austro-Hungarian government minutes of the meeting of the privy council on July 7, 1914 at which it was virtually decided to begin war on Serbia. According to this publication the ministry of Austria-Hungary, especially Count Leopold von Berchthold, foreign minister, was solely responsible for the outbreak of hostilities.

The minutes show the meetings to have been opened by Count von Berchthold who pleaded for an immediate resort to arms against Serbia, stating that Italy and Rumania "could be compensated afterwards for not having been consulted beforehand."

Count Stephen Tisza, then Hungarian premier, opposed the war, demanding that diplomatic action be taken first and then an ultimatum of an acceptable nature be sent. Only in case both failed would he have resorted to arms.

Count von Berchthold thereupon said:

"Now is the right moment because Germany is ready to assist."

Count Tisza again warned against the danger of a general European war as a result of steps which were contemplated whereupon Count von Berchthold said:

"The opportunity is so favorable that immediate action is necessary."

Finally a resolution was adopted that such far reaching demands be made of Serbia that she could not fulfill them and thus a way was opened to resort to arms. The document concludes with a copy of a note from the late Emperor Francis Joseph stating that he "had taken notice of the contents of the minutes and had signed them with his own hand."

The morning was taken up at Labor hall by a meeting of the employees, supposedly considering a proposed agreement. Both sides anticipate an adjustment this week with a resumption of painting.

tian in the league. Not that they love Wilson less, but that they feel their constituents more.

Two More Abandon Support
Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, Democrat, announced that he could not vote for the treaty without a drastic reservation to article X and that he had framed a series of reservations to the covenant to protect American rights and interests.

Senator Thomas of Colorado Democrat, made public a letter to the Democratic state committee of Colorado asserting that after long deliberation he had concluded he could not support the covenant in the form submitted by the president.

Nine Democrats are now on record in support of amendments or reservations or both, the president's support having dwindled to thirty-eight of the ninety-six senators, with still other Democrats on the verge of insurgency.

Certain utterances of Mr. Wilson in the west Senator Reed pronounced "as false as they were infamous" in the course of a denunciation such as a chief executive rarely if ever has suffered at the hands of a member of his own party.

Peroration Stirs 'Em Up

As usual, the galleries were filled, in part by returned soldiers. Half a dozen times during Senator Reed's address they interrupted him with loud applause, despite repeated warnings from Senator Cummins of Iowa, president pro tem. Senator Reed concluded his speech by quoting from the president's address at Kansas City on Sept. 6, in which he said the league of nations "is greater than the senate; it is greater than the government."

"I decline," exclaimed Senator Reed, "to help set up any government greater than that established by the fathers, baptized in the blood of patriots from the lane of Lexington to the forest of the Argonne, sanctified by the tears of all the mothers whose heroic sons went down to death to sustain its glory and independence—the government of the United States."

Applause Unprecedented

Then came the turn, the like of which has never been seen or heard in the senate. The audience in the galleries leaped to its feet and burst into wild cheering. Hundreds of soldiers stood, waving hats, and shouting their approval. The president's protest lost all control. For minutes the demonstration kept up, and even senators joined in the applause or rushed to congratulate Senator Reed.

Chamber of Commerce Is Hit By Miners

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—The convention of the United Mine Workers of America today classed the Chamber of Commerce of the United States with the Industrial Workers of the World and other syndicalist organizations as hostile to the cause of organized labor and adopted an amendment to the constitution forbidding members of the United Mine Workers to join any and all such organizations. The amendment carries with it permanent disbarment from office in the miners' organization.

One of the chief charges brought against the national body was its endorsement of the Rockefeller industrial plan now employed to regulate the relations of employers and miners in certain mines in Colorado against which the United Mine Workers are waging vigorous opposition.

Mr. Kobs hearing the cries of the other children rushed to the scene. The child was taken from the trough; but all efforts to resuscitate him failed.

Following an investigation by Acting Coroner Henry Casson, yesterday a verdict of accidental drowning was announced. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the home, with interment at Waterloo.

ENGLAND IS FROWNING ON U. S. DRY MEN

State Department is Watching Activities of Anti-Saloon League

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON.—The American state department is taking measures to check the extension of the Anti-Saloon league's prohibition campaign in Europe, according to the Daily Mail which says two agents of the league who recently sought passport facilities in Paris preparatory to visiting England, were unable to obtain the necessary visas.

"The American state department," the newspaper continues "is fully alive to the detrimental effects which extension of the Anti-Saloon league's activities in Europe might have on international relations, especially at the present time and is said to be resolved to avoid possible misunderstandings."

The Daily Mail, which is conducting a campaign in opposition to William E. Johnson, organizer of the Anti Saloon league, says it is considered unlikely that many more anti-saloon campaigners will be allowed to embark for England.

VETERANS ISSUE ANTI-BOLSHEVIK PROCLAMATION

Demand Congress Deport All Unregenerate Aliens

The Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., descendants of the union soldiers and sailors of the civil war, have issued a declaration to the effect that:

The order will vigorously oppose all bolshevik movements and tendencies, and all efforts that make for the destruction or impairment of our constitutional union.

All citizens must be one hundred per cent American. Congress be called upon to provide necessary laws for the deportation of all unregenerate aliens, and those who do not in good faith seek to become citizens.

These laws be enforced by the executive branch of the government.

They believe that congress should forthwith cause to be made a thorough investigation of the causes of social unrest, and having ascertained the causes, then to provide the remedies that will restore the peace and happiness of the whole people under unaltered American institutions.

To the accomplishment of the foregoing the Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., pledge the loyal efforts of their members and express their willingness to co-operate with all other patriotic organizations actuated by similar motives. This order also offers to the government the service of its nation-wide organization to distribute any propaganda of Americanism which may be authorized to combat all movements which would raise the red flag of anarchy, or which are treasonable or subversive of free democracy as handed down by the founders of this republic. These resolutions were adopted and promulgated by the thirty-eighth National Encampment at Columbus, O., Sept. 11th, 1919.

SLOVAK RULE HITS GERMANS

Letters From Bohemia Tell of Political Situation There

The following are extracts from letters received by R. Neumann from his father and his brother in law and tell of the conditions now prevailing in Bohemia, the German population of which has been placed under the jurisdiction of the Czechoslovak government.

"Figuring that the krone is worth only about 5 cents at the present time, outside of foodstuffs, everything is cheaper than in this country. A good dinner costs about 30 kronen; a hog sells for as much as $8,000 to $9,000 kronen; while a good suit of clothes about 800 kronen. In spite of the war the country has progressed.

Practically every farmer has electrical appliances of every kind now and does his threshing in the most modern way.

"American foodstuffs are going into Bohemia by the carload and almost all restrictions on food instituted by the government during the war have now been removed.

"The three and a half million German people placed under the jurisdiction of the Czechoslovak government by the terms of the peace treaty, are being persecuted by that government in much the same manner that the Irish are being persecuted by the English. Their houses are being searched by the Czechoslovak soldiery for arms and ammunition and numerous and unjustifiable arrests are made.

"Please don't spend any money in sending us papers. They are generally three to four weeks on the way, so that most of the news are already surpassed and therefore not of great interest. Besides are all your American papers full of a lot of things which we don't understand over here. Some seem even silly to us and we are surprised that you people find any interest or pleasure in reading them. I would nearly call it a lot of rot and it is a true sign that you over there do not know what it really is 'war.' Else people would want to read other things. We have learned to know it in all possible shapes and our minds have turned stern and are worried too much about other things. So we cannot else than be surprised by seeing the stuff your people read. This regarding your English papers.

"Therefore, I quite believe that many of your people only now come to realize that we had war and what that means. It cannot be otherwise. The time to come will certainly be worse than that passed and it will be hard work to keep ourselves above water. Over here, hard and intensive work only can bring us to better and reasonable economical state again, but it will still take some time before the grand mass of men get their eyes opened and will be realizing that fact. We have here labor troubles as well as living is more than high. When coming the dollar to 15 kronen, we come to the same terms you state. To explain you all thoroughly is impossible. It would take me days of writing and still you would not see clear. Besides the letter would probably not pass the frontier of our country.

Need Quieting Influence of Rocking Chairs

"That's my chair!" Bang, bang. "No, no, baby wants chair, my chair," ending in a long drawn out wail and two big tears brimming over in the eyes of baby number two.

This is a daily performance at the Madison day nursery, and the quarrel is over two dilapidated little rocking chairs, much prized and coveted.

"There must be many such chairs, used but not dilapidated, in Madison homes, where the children have long since outgrown them and they have been relegated to the attic," said Mrs. George Lewis, matron of the nursery, who issues an appeal for several little rocking chairs for the nursery.

Beds are also badly needed, as all the children take afternoon naps and the nursery has now not more than six or seven beds. Toys are also in great demand as those sent to the nursery have usually been used and therefore cannot stand the constant strain of being played with for very long.

LAKE SEAMEN WILL GO OUT IN SYMPATHY?

Official Says Vote is Nearly Unanimous to Aid Steel Strike

CHICAGO—Patrick O'Brien, of the Lake Seamen's Union announced today that the strike vote of men employed on ore carrying steamers on the Great Lakes has been counted and is practically unanimous in favor of going out in sympathy with the steel workers. The vote of every local with the exception of the Superior, Wis., has been canvassed and it is said that the vote of the members of that district will not change the result.

Nine ore steamers are tied up at the government pier outside of So. Chicago and it is said that forty more boats loaded with ore will arrive from Lake Superior ports in the next few days. It is said that instructions have been sent to northern ports to send no more ore boats to South Chicago or Gary until the strike is ended.

CANCER CAUSES 180,000 DEATHS IN TWO YEARS

Twice as many persons died of cancer in America than were killed in the world war during the same period of time it is estimated by the federal health service at Washington. The department issued a circular calling upon the people to protect themselves from this painful and dangerous disease by early treatment.

Figures compiled show that one out of every ten persons over 40 years of age dies of cancer and while the great war cost the United States about $8,000 lives, cancer in the same two years claimed 180,000 in this country. The disease is curable if treated early.

"At the beginning cancer is usually painless and difficult to detect," the new bulletin points out. "At its first small growth it can be safely and easily removed by a competent surgeon. Cancer is not a constitutional or 'blood' disease, is not contagious and is, practically speaking, not hereditary. Persistent abnormal discharge or bleeding is suspicious. Sores, cracks, lacerations, lumps, and ulcers, which do not heal, and warts, moles, or birthmarks which change in size, color, or appearance, may turn into cancer unless treated and cured. Persistent indigestion; in middle life, with loss of weight and change of color, or with pain, vomiting, or diarrhea, calls for a thorough and competent medical advice as to the possibility of internal cancer. A doctor who treats a suspicious symptom without making a thorough examination does not know his business."

"Advertising quacks and patent medicines, claiming phenomenal cures, loom up like a last ray of hope to the afflicted," continues the bulletin. "As a matter of fact their treatment invariably aggravates instead of helping, and when competent physicians are finally consulted the case is really beyond any hope of recovery, or arrest."

This circular, entitled "Cancer, Facts Which Every Adult Should Know," is free upon application to the Public Health Service, Washington.

COUNTRY TEACHERS ARE SOUGHT BY SCHOOL BOARDS

Salaries Doubled and $60 is Minimum Declares State Supt. Cary

An acute shortage of country school teachers in Wisconsin has created a difficult problem for local educational authorities to solve, according to C. P. Cary, state superintendent.

In many instances it has been necessary to lower standards in licensing teachers. Salaries have been increased as much as 100 percent. Persons with merely high school educations are being engaged in some localities.

The law requires that no person without experience can be licensed to teach without at least a year's training in professional lines. The law provides, however, that in case of shortage of teachers in the country schools, the county superintendent, with the approval of the state superintendent, may license the best available people without reference to the year of professional training.

No Rooming Places
"Country teachers find much difficulty in securing convenient and suitable boarding and rooming places," Supt. Cary said. "If we could only solve this problem, it would go a long ways in the direction of solving the country teacher problem. Teacherages are not likely to yield much relief for the reason that Wisconsin people do not favor having young women living alone under such circumstances and comparatively few could arrange to have relatives with them."

Pathfinder Planes

Delay Flight Here

Bad weather and break downs in keeping the All-American Pathfinder squadron at Milwaukee and no indications of when the planes will start for Madison could be obtained from the headquarters. The present cause of delay is the need of parts for liberty motors.

An accident in rising nearly wrecked one of the planes and slightly injured Lieut. George C. McDonald, the pilot, and his assistant, Sergt. Homer Gorbey. The machine struck an obstacle in the take-off and hit a near-by fence.

YOUR WAR RISK INSURANCE MAY BE REINSTATED

Government Offers Liberal Plan for Resumption of Any of 6 Permanent Forms

Wisconsin families are being paid $32,145,720 in War Risk Insurance claims by Uncle Sam. He is making restitution to those whose sons and husbands died in the service of their country during the world war.

There are 3678 insurance claims being paid through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance to beneficiaries named at the time application for insurance was made by soldiers, sailors and marines, now dead. The average policy carried by these 3678 men was $8,740.

In addition to the insurance and compensation claims now being paid in Wisconsin, there are 1542 of both these classes of claims under investigation. These cases, however, are rapidly being adjusted following an investigation by Bureau representatives.

Records in the Bureau show that this has been a young man's war and a mother's war. More than 47 per cent of the men who carried government insurance made mothers their beneficiaries. Fathers were named by approximately 16 per cent of the men.

The average age of the men killed in France was 23 years.

An examination of the records in the Bureau of War Risk Insurance shows that a large percentage of married men in arranging for the future protection of their families planned for insurance to be paid to their mothers, while their thought in arranging their compensation benefits, was for their wives.

About 32 per cent of the men who carried War Risk Insurance named their wives in making arrangements for compensation. Mothers were named by 22 per cent, while the "wife and child" were named by 14 per cent.

Insurance claims which the Bureau will be called upon to pay amount to more than $1,012,000,000. The amount of premiums received from all service men and which was deducted from their pay during the active period of the war approximates only $200,000,000 or less than one-fifth of the amount of insurance claims. The excess above premiums will be paid by the government.

More than 1,200,000 men who were born and raised on farms in the United States and who served in the army, navy and marine corps during the recent war carried approximately $10,438,000,000 of war risk insurance. Records show that a large percentage of this sum was made payable to their mothers, fathers and others who reside on farms.

Records in the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, compiled during the rapid demobilization, covering the period from January 1, 1919, to June 1st, last, show that more than half the men change their residence after being mustered out of the service.

A certain percentage of the veterans of the World War are keeping up their government insurance. In order to reach those who temporarily have allowed their insurance to lapse, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance has organized a voluntary field force which will endeavor to conserve as much as possible of the nearly $40,000,000,000 of insurance carried by men in the service.

There are six permanent forms of government insurance, as follows:

1. 20-Year Endowment.
2. 30-Year Endowment.
3. 20-Payment Life.
4. 30-Payment Life.
5. Endowment at Age 62.
6. Ordinary Life.

Applications are being received by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance for changing the present term insurance, which was issued at the time of entering the service, into the permanent forms. The government, in an effort to aid every man in keeping up his war risk insurance, has made unusually liberal provisions covering reinstatement of insurance, where the former service man has allowed it temporarily to lapse. In this way every bit of insurance which has been allowed to lapse may be reinstated under the following provisions:

A. The applicant must be in as good health as at the date of discharge, or at the date the insurance lapsed, if lapse occurred after discharge, and must so state in the signed application for reinstatement.

B. The application must be accompanied by a remittance to pay the premium for the month of grace during which protection was provided after discharge, and for the first month on the reinstated insurance.

Ten features which prominently stand out in the government policy are as follows:

1. The total permanent disability clause is granted without cost to the insured and it is free from all restrictions.
2. Government insurance does not charge its policy holders any overhead expense.
3. It contains an extremely liberal definition of disability.
4. It gives very substantial payments.
5. It contains no age restrictions.
6. It is unrestricted as to travel, residence or occupation.
7. Premiums paid in advance are refunded down to the month, in case of death.
8. The policy is non-taxable.
9. Unusually liberal cash loan paid up insurance and extended term insurance values are included.

PALE COMPLEXION IS INDICATION OF ANEMIC CONDITION

Wisconsin Resident Describes Treatment That Restored Her
Health and Strength

"Several years ago I had a severe attack of pleurisy and it left me badly run down," says Mrs. E. A. Adams, of No. 2215 Twenty-second street, Superior, Wis. "My condition, however, didn't alarm me because I felt confident that almost any tonic would restore my strength. But this was not the case. I tried several prescriptions but I grew worse instead of better. I had very little blood and suffered from splitting headaches. I became very nervous and couldn't sleep. My color was poor and I was growing thinner from day to day."

"Finally my husband procured a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and asked me to try the remedy for he had heard it recommended very highly. After a few weeks' treatment I could see a very decided improvement in my condition and I kept on the treatment until I was built up. My blood became richer and my color much better. I can sleep soundly now and am completely free from headaches. I have also gained considerable weight. I always keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on hand for they are the one remedy that I can rely on."

A useful booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50.—Adv.

These will be 10 city mail carriers, 4 rural carriers, 2 clerks and a superintendent. With the opening of the new post office, the sub-stations at Menger's pharmacy on University ave., the Badger pharmacy on University ave., and the Y. M. C. A. will probably be discontinued. "This post office," declared Mr. Devine, "will fill a need which the people of the west-end have long felt, as the sub-stations in drug stores are inconvenient, as the persons wishing stamps and other postal services, often have to wait until the clerks are through with other customers."

ASSIGN BADGERS TO COLLEGES THIS WEEK

Allotment Going on at Full Speed—Special Meeting
Friday

The first assignments under the Nye soldier-educational bill were sent out by the State Board of Education today. The applications are now coming in by the hundreds and where there is no question involved the assignments will be sent out the next day after the receipt of the application. This will give all those who make early applications an opportunity to enter the university or what ever college they prefer at the beginning of the fall term.

The State Board of Education has adopted the plan of "first come, first served." Those expressing preference in their applications for any given school will be permitted to enter that school until the limit has been reached. Just what disposition of the applicants will be made after that has not as yet been announced, but it is likely they will be assigned to the school nearest their homes.

The State Board will hold a special meeting on Friday to pass on all the doubtful or questionable cases. One young man applied at the office of the State Board today. He has had three years in the engineering department of the university, was working his way through school and the bonus of $30 per month would come to him as a God-send during his senior year. But until the Board can rule on his case there is a question as to whether or not he is entitled to the bonus under the provision of the law.

He was rejected from military service early in the war on account of his eyes but in February 1918 enlisted in the engineers reserve, was called into service in November, 1918, reporting at Fort Dodge, where he remained for two months.

Another important question which the Board will be asked to rule on Friday is whether or not soldier-students in night schools can receive the bonus. The night law class in Marquette University, is the one which is now under consideration.

It has been suggested that the law should be modified to include an opportunity for the soldiers to study in the established evening schools. E. A. Fritzpatrick, secretary, however, called attention to the fact that the legislature has adjourned and it alone can amend or modify the law.

Roosevelt's Friend, Seth Bullock, Dies

DEADWOOD, S. D.—Seth Bullock, lifelong personal friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, died at his home. He was a pioneer of the Black Hills and was 62 years old.

Foreign Students Aided By International Club

To the student who travels thousands of miles to attend school, who is subjected to inspection of all kinds, and who finally arrives in a city where he is strange and uncomfortable, to find a "welcoming hand," to hear his name spoken in his own language, to hear some one say he is glad to see him—in the words of an Americanized foreign student, "It's a grand and glorious feeling!" That is what happens each year at Wisconsin. The student may come from India, or he may come from Norway, but always there is some one to greet him. The international club at the University of Wisconsin has made this a reality.

When Karl Kawakami invited sixteen foreign and ten native students to his little modest apartment sixteen years ago, he little dreamed that an organization would be formed that would still be active and strong in 1919, twenty school years. At that time a club was formed that was to meet on a basis of equality and brotherhood. "All were to cultivate the arts of peace whereby lasting international friendship might be established."

The cosmopolitan idea was a novel one, and other schools soon imitated the example set by the Badger university. Clubs were formed at Harvard, Leland Stanford, Cornell and other schools. So successful had become the plan that in 1907 a convention of cosmopolitan clubs was held at Madison, and a national constitution formed.

The cosmopolitan or international club, wherever it be, has two definite tasks. One is to make the social life of the foreign student such that he will overcome any feeling of antagonism toward the American and to eliminate any feeling of strangeness.

One other task, is the overcoming of petty prejudices on the part of the American, the elimination of the idea that the foreigner is a curiosity.

The past year, the International club has been a potent factor in the social and intellectual life of the university. Meetings, to which everyone is welcome, are held at definite intervals. The membership has included men and women; not only Americans, but from China, Russia, Poland, France, Iceland, India, Philippine Islands, Brazil, Norway and Denmark. In addition native students who are foreign born are members.

MINE STRIKE NOV. 1 SEEN IN DEMANDS

Scale Committee of the United Mine Workers
Makes Its Report

ASK 60% INCREASE

Six Hour Day and Five Day
Week Also Demanded; Meet
at Cleveland

CLEVELAND, O.—The report of the scale committee embodying the proposed demands of the United Mine Workers was presented to the convention today by Frank Farrington, chairman of the committee. It includes the anticipated demands for a flat sixty per cent increase in wages applicable to all classifications of day labor and to all tonnage, yardage and dead work rates throughout the central competitive district (Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania) the six hour day from bank to bank, five days per week with time and a half for overtime and double time for all work on Sundays holidays and a weekly pay day.

The international officials are instructed to call a general strike of all bituminous miners and mine workers in the United States Nov. 1, unless a satisfactory agreement is reached by that time.

The report demands that all double shift work be abolished, except such as may be necessary for ventilating purposes and development of new mines. It demands that no "automatic penalty clause" be included in the agreement such as is contained in the present Washington wage agreement, providing an automatic penalty of a dollar a day for each miner going on strike against the provisions of the agreement and similar fine for any operator locking out his miners.

Wanted Brave Burglar With Desire For Pork

If the gentleman-burglar who visited the meat market of W. H. Pope, at 852 E. Johnson st., is still anxious to get that lone pork chop, he will find it laid out for him on the block in the left hand corner of the store. Please call early to avoid the rush and try not to wake the neighbors.

In addition to the pork chop the burglar may find a reception committee of irate and indignant residents who will furnish any amount of backshot to spice the said chop and aid the gentleman in making a speedy get-away.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope and the Pops will also aid in making the thief comfortable by laying him out on the ice after he has given up the ghost, as it were. Further preparations for the great event will consist in sprinkling the pork chop with Paris green.

"If there is anybody so hungry for the taste of pork that he is driven to stealing on account of the high prices, I shall be glad to invite the person to a pork roast," declared Mr. Pope.

"I really cannot tell very much about the attempted burglary except that in opening the store this morning I was warned by my neighbors that it was visited by a burglar during the early hours. Mrs. John Hyland and a number of other people declared that they were awakened from a deep dream of peace by the noises in the meat market. They reiterated by similar noises and the wood-be burglar took flight without getting the lone pork chop that was left in the refrigerator."

SENATE ACTS ON THE STRIKE

WASHINGTON—Investigation of the steel strike by the senate labor committee was ordered today by the senate. A resolution by Senator Kenyon, providing for the inquiry and authorizing a report as to whether any remedial federal action could be taken, was adopted.

Senator Kenyon said it was proposed to call leaders representing both employers and employees to Washington in an effort to determine the cause of the strike.

Before the Kenyon resolution was adopted Senator Thomas, introduced one opposing strikes and declaring that the senate "views with concern" the labor situation. Senator Thomas announced that he planned to make an address tomorrow on the resolution which declares that a man has a constitutional right to follow any calling and that the so-called "Closed shop" is "un-American and detrimental to American freedom."

"This strike seems to be the first skirmish in industrial warfare" said Senator Kenyon. "Let us face it and find out the facts."

MADRIGAL CLUB TO OPEN SEASON

Women's Singing Organization to Meet Thursday

The Madrigal club, a women's chorus, which was organized five years ago by Miss Ada Bird and Alexius Baas, will begin its season's activities with its opening rehearsal Thursday evening, Sept. 25, at the Wisconsin School of Music, at 7:00 p. m.

The Madrigal club was organized with the view of providing for the women of Madison a singing organization which should occupy the same relation toward women that the Mozart club does toward men. The Madrigal club is non-sectarian. It is not affiliated with any school, college or other organization. It wishes eventually to include in its membership all women in this city of vocal ability. Its purposes among other things to bring to Madison artists of national and international reputation.

WILSON BROUGHT HOME RICH GIFTS, PENROSE IS TOLD

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator Penrose declared in the senate today that President Wilson and his party brought back from the Paris peace conference jewels and other gifts from "crowned heads" which he had been told were worth more than $1,000,000.

"I have been told that the president and his party came back overburdened with presents from crowned heads and foreign governments," Senator Penrose said. "There was jewelry valued at hundreds of thousands, and I was told that customs authorities valued the gifts at more than a million dollars."

Rumored Pershing Is To Be Married

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Washington had a new Pershing story on Monday when the announcement that Gen. Pershing had concluded the lease of Mrs. Henry C. Gorbin's suburban home just beyond Chevy Chase, Md., was followed by the statement in a local paper that this was the forerunner of a more interesting announcement, in which the world would be told of the prospective marriage of Gen. Pershing to Mrs. Carl Boyd, widow of the late Col. Boyd, U. S. A., who died in France less than a year ago, while serving on Gen. Pershing's staff.

RATE HEARING SET FOR OCT. 14

Commission Resumes Fight for Reduction of State
Toll Rates

The fight to force down the long distance toll rates in Wisconsin became definite today, when the railroad commission announced that a hearing would be held on the subject at Madison on Oct. 14.

When the federal government took over the Wisconsin Telephone company toll rates were increased about 25 per cent and the fight of the state against these rates ended in a victory for the company. Now that the Wisconsin Telephone company is being turned back by the government the state commission has started an investigation of toll rates and a reduction is probable.

Representatives of 94 independent telephone companies appeared before the railroad commission on Tuesday to ask the right to make certain changes.

NORDMAN SOLVES KNOTTY PROBLEM FOR SHIPPERS

The value of the marketing commissioner to the state is already asserting itself. Monday Commissioner Nordman received word from Black River Falls that considerable trouble was being experienced there in the shipment of cabbage.

It was stated that ten carloads of cabbage were to be shipped daily from that point. The railroad had with some difficulty provided refrigerator cars but they were delayed a day in being iced at Hudson and when they reached their destination at St. Louis or other southern points there was considerable spoilage and the shippers were asking for ventilated or stock cars instead of refrigerators.

Another complaint was made because the cars were held in Black River Falls, generally for 24 hours after being loaded. Many of the empty cars were brought to the city on a train which arrives about 1 to 1:30 in the afternoon and they cannot be loaded in time for him to bill them out before 3 and therefore have to lay in the yards until the next day.

Commissioner Nordman took the matter up immediately with the Railroad Commission which in turn took it up with the railroad company and as a result the refrigerator cars will be sent to other parts of the state where there is a demand for them and ventilators or stock cars will be sent to Black River Falls to handle the cabbage crop.

The tour is being made to acquaint farmers with the advantages of the truck as a new farm tool. Each of the eighteen trucks will be of a different make but all will be equipped with pneumatic tires.

JOHNSON CALLS WILSON TOUR BIG FAILURE

Not Worrying About California Conditions He Says in Chicago

CHICAGO—Senator Hiram Johnson will arrive in Washington this morning prepared to say to his senatorial colleagues that the tour of President Wilson has been a failure of its purpose had been to force the ratification of the peace treaty without reservations.

"I can not have the slightest doubt about the sentiment in the states where I have been," Senator Johnson reported yesterday, as he passed through Chicago. "The middle west stands absolutely with the position of the senators who will insist upon reservations."

"And as to California"—and here Senator Johnson waved a batch of confidential telegrams—"these are unanimous in the story that California was glad to see the president and extended the usual hospitality, but that is about all. I am supremely confident that my own state stands with me."

Not even in the Roosevelt-Johnson campaign of 1912, Senator Johnson said, had he seen such demonstrations of approval as he marked his meetings.

Delay Test Vote.
WASHINGTON—Republican senate leaders decided today to defer for several days consideration of the amendment to the peace treaty by Senator Johnson, proposing equal voting strength in the league of nations between the United States and Great Britain. Formal reading of the treaty will be continued for a time.

Senator Johnson, who has been speaking in the middle west against the league plan, returned here today but, it was said, he would rest at home until tomorrow.

GOES DOWN TOWN FIRST TIME IN EIGHT MONTHS

Wife of Former Steamship
Captain Feels She Should Tell Others of Tanlac

"Yesterday, for the first time in eight months, I was able to go down town," said Mrs. Margaret Sprowell, of 2021 Lackawanna avenue, Superior, Wis., in telling of the benefit she has derived from the use of Tanlac, recently.

Mrs. Sprowell is the wife of Captain J. V. Sprowell, who sailed the Great Lakes for twenty-five years and is well known and popular at every port. Among the vessels under his command was the steamer, "The Fear Woman," which Captain and Mrs. Sprowell have resided in Superior for nearly thirty years and their many friends will be glad to learn of Mrs. Sprowell's wonderful improvement.

"For the past ten years, that is, until after using Tanlac for a while," continued Mrs. Sprowell, "I have had trouble with my stomach. I could not eat anything without blowing up with gas and suffering intense pain through my stomach and right side. I was constantly belching up this sour gas and undigested food and always felt badly for hours after meals. Then about ten months ago I got so I could hardly eat at all and would go for more than a week at a time without eating a mouthful of anything. Then about this time the worst kind of pain struck me in my right knee and ankle and hurt me so badly I could hardly bear my weight on that limb. I was unable to leave my room and was so helpless I just had to hobble from one object to the other. I could not walk without the most awful suffering. My right leg became all swollen and then the pains extended to the small of my back and hurt me so at times I could not get out of bed. My nerves finally became so upset and unstrung that I would shake like a leaf.

"Neither treatment, medicines or treatments helped me and I had lost nearly all hope of getting relief until I began taking Tanlac about seven weeks ago. But thanks to Tanlac I began to feel better in just two or three days after I started taking it. The gas stopped forming on my stomach and my pains gradually left me. I am still taking Tanlac and improving right along, but, as I said, I am already so much better that yesterday I walked to the car and went down town for the first time in eight months. The pain is all gone out of my leg and back and I have not felt so much like myself in many years. Since Tanlac has done so much for me, I can't help thinking of others who need it like I did and I feel that I ought to tell them about it."

Tanlac is sold in Madison by Lackey Pharmacies, in Deerfield by W. A. Perkins, in Middleton by Dr. A. M. Tekkam, in Scoughton by O. N. Falk & Son, in Sun Prairie by W. L. Schultz.—Adv.

PAULINE FREDERICK
Star in Goldwyn Pictures

AT THE NEW STRAND
Capital acting opportunities are offered not only Pauline Frederick but every one associated with her in "The Fear Woman," newest of her Goldwyn pictures, which comes to the Strand theatre today and tomorrow. The star herself is seen in a role of uncommon power and appeal as Helen Winthrop, a girl who is racked by fear lest her father's weakness for drink may manifest itself in her and destroy the happiness of the man she loves.

THE FULLER
That is the goal Mack Sennett set for himself in the production of "Yankee Doodle in Berlin" which is to be shown at the Fuller theatre beginning next Monday for 4 days and with which will be seen a beautiful boy of the famous Sennett Bathing Girls.

Of course, the center of interest is the group of bathing beauties. Not one of the girls who have come from the California studios to tour the country with the film ever has had professional stage experience before.

THE GRAND
Norma Talmadge, appearing in her newest picture "The New Moon" will be seen at the Grand for the last times today. Tomorrow "Human Desire" comes for a four day showing. "Human Desire" presents Anita Stewart in her fourth First National special "Virtuous Wives," "Midnight Romance" and "Mary Regan" being the first three.

MAJESTIC
"Checkers" the big spectacular melodrama which has been screened by William Fox, and which started its phenomenal run at the Majestic on Sunday, will be shown again today and Wednesday. Henry M. Blosson's great racing play was a tremendous success as a stage play and the Fox screen production directed by Richard Stanton contains action and situations that were found impossible to inject in the stage production. THE FULLER

Much can be and will be written about "The Miracle Man" George Loane Tucker's excellent photograph play, which is on view at the Fuller this week, but to appreciate it fully one must witness a performance of the most unusual picture. A life portrayed to you in an hour! That is what "The Miracle Man" does.

This picture stirred the audiences at the Fuller Sunday and Monday as is seldom a picture does. It is impossible to give an idea of the story for there are so many plots and counterplots, yet it is not so intricate, that it muddles the mind of the spectator.

"The Miracle Man" and a more appalling person could not have been chosen for the part. The picture is a masterpiece, the excellent way in which it is being offered to Madison theatergoers, with a special augmented orchestra, adding greatly to its enjoyment cannot receive too much credit. "The Miracle Man" is being offered at the Fuller all this week.

There are some plays that are exciting because of the wickedness they reveal, and others that are exciting because of the incredible virtue they depict. "The Miracle Man" is both! Imagine the worst sharks that exist in the Slums—a daring crackman, a beautiful girl as tough and wicked as a snake, a faker who could counterfeit any deformity you like, a dope-fiend as sly as a weasel. Imagine these people invading the lives of other human beings every bit as good as these are, bad, the acid of sin striving to bite into the gold of pure hearts, imagine... but if the story of "The Miracle Man" were properly tellable in words we would tell it. BADGER STOCK GOES SKY HIGH

Forty Candidates Get Into First Scrimmage of Year Yesterday

Badger football stock went up above the claims of its opponents when the squad was swelled to forty candidates, mostly veterans, at the practice yesterday. The old men are expected to add greatly to the strength of the team. The first scrimmage of the year was held.

The order for scrimmage came as a surprise to the crowd of anxious fans who were gathered at the field. So far this year the men have done nothing but exercise, and learn the fundamentals, such as blocking, handling the ball, passing and kicking. During the latter part of last week a few of the men had an opportunity to work with signals while the majority continued their routine preliminary work.

Last night the men met in the gymnasium for a lecture by Coach Richards on the psychology of football and a chalk demonstration of the manner in which the plays should be executed.

Jacobi, the driving fullback of the 1917 varsity, was out in uniform for the first time. He will be a powerful addition to the Wisconsin backfield. Wittie and Duncan, both of the 1917 freshman team, reported to compete for a berth at quarter, and Elliot, a promising halfback, as well as Hensen, a weighty lineman with two years experience have been added.

With the Enemy

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Dr. Williams, the Gopher coach, today gave his thirty candidates their first scrimmage of the season. It was a long one, the Minn. and Gold coach keeping his first and second teams at it for more than an hour. "Bill" Clement, a husky tackle, injured his shoulder blade in practice Saturday and will be out for two weeks. Walter Haertel was back on the squad after his battle with the coach Saturday when he announced that he would quit the team.

IOWA

IOWA CITY, Ia.—Iowa's football eleven held its first scrimmage this afternoon and the eleven nearly duplicated a 1918 lineup. Heldt was at center, Kelly quarterback, Capt. Lehmann fullback, Kaufman and Mockmore guards, Synhorst and Slater tackles, Belding and Charlton ends, and the Devine brothers, halfbacks, were the only men not regulars last season. Rich was at half for the second eleven, but is likely to be a regular.

MICHIGAN

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—The varsity second two touchdowns against the scrubs in a half hour scrimmage tonight. Vick, Yost's 180-pound fullback, started the first score by a forward pass to Peach and made the other himself on a ten-yard smash through the line.

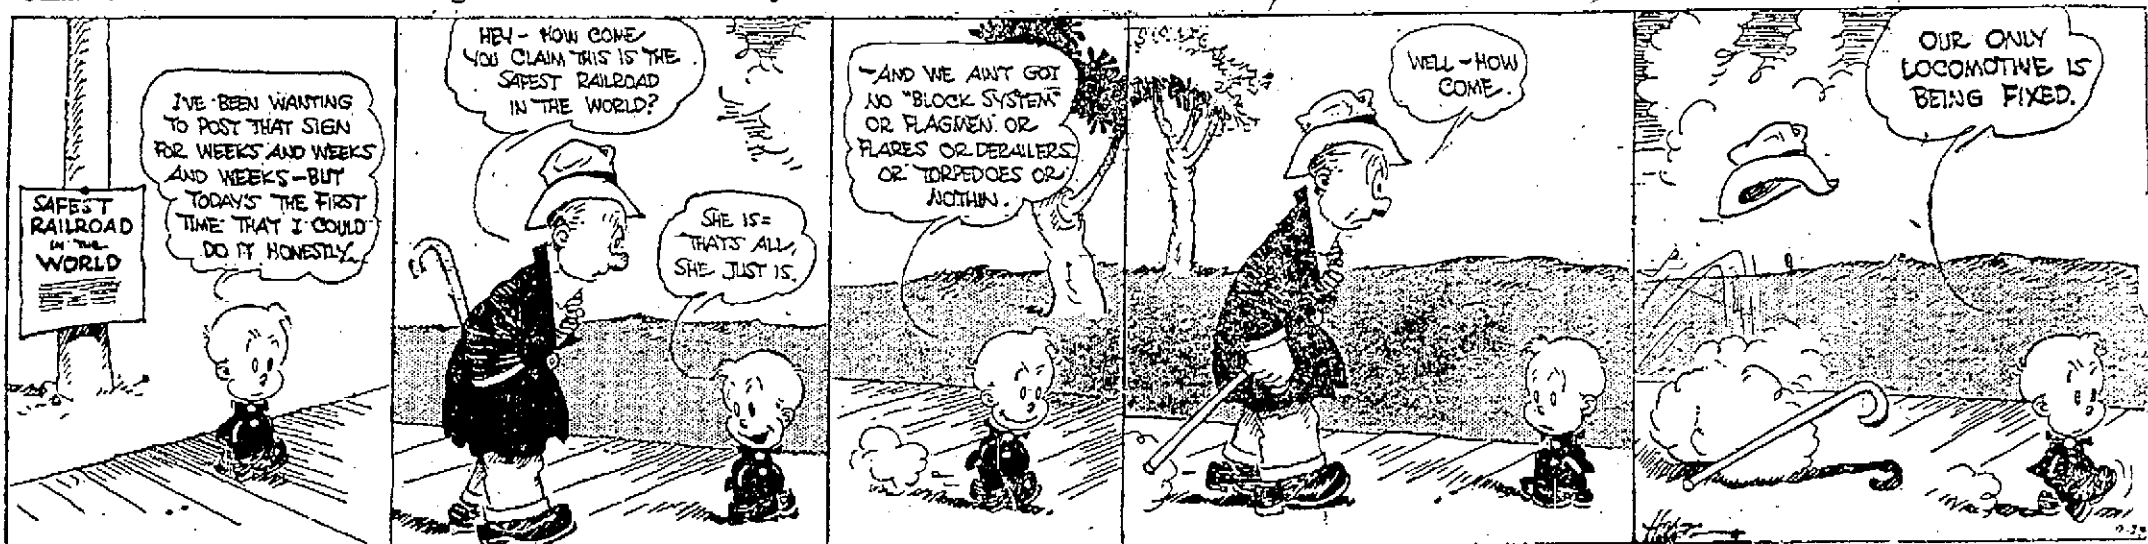

NOTRE DAME

NOTRE DAME, Ind.—The first scrimmage of the season for the Notre Dame squad was disappointment today to Head Coach Rozine and his assistant "Gits" Dorais. The work of Crowley, tackle, featured the performance of the linemen. The backfield men were slow in grasping signs and displayed surprising lack of team work. The return of Hays, stellar end of 1917, will bolster the right wing of the line, however.

PURDUE

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—There was much gloom in the Purdue football camp today when it became known that because of ill health Edgar Murphy, quarterback, had returned to his home in Chicago. Murphy was a former Hyde Park High school star and was an All-Cook County selection. Bob Wagner, from last year's freshmen was shifted to quarter and Marvin Smith will be given a tryout at half.

SERIES START AT CINCINNATI

Reds Play First Two Games at Home; Cubs Lose to Cardinals

CINCINNATI, O.—Cincinnati for the first time in its history as a National league city will on Wednesday, Oct. 1, witness the opening game of the series to decide the championship of the world between the Cincinnati Reds, winners of the National league pennant, and the Chicago White Sox, prospective winners of the American league pennant.

Chicago has not yet clinched the flag in the junior organization, but the national commission made its arrangements on the theory that it was almost impossible for Cleveland, the runnerup, to nose out Comiskey's club. All games are scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m.

Umpires Selected. The umpires who will officiate are William Evans and R. F. Nallin of the American league and Charles Risler and E. C. Quigley of the National league.

J. G. Taylor Spinks, St. Louis will represent the national commission as scorer, while Jos. M. McCready, secretary of the Baseball Writers' association of America, will represent that organization. These two officials will work in both cities, and will be assisted by one member of the local chapter of the writers' association in each of the contesting cities.

The commission voted itself 1,500 tickets for distribution between the major and minor league clubs of the country. After Presidents Johnson and Heydler drew the first 100 envelopes containing requests for tickets for the games here from a large box, the meeting adjourned.

FORMER BADGER STAR PRESIDENT FOOTBALL CLUB

Twenty-odd years ago Judge J. C. Karel was known to every football fan in the middle west as "Ikey" Karel, star halfback of the University of Wisconsin, a brilliant open-field runner and sterling all-around man, with a reputation for hard and always clean play. Later his services were in demand as an official as long as he was able to give up the time this work demanded. For years, "Ikey" Karel's name stood for the square deal in football and no local team ever objected to the present county judge as a football arbiter.

This being true, the action of the Milwaukee Amateur Football association in voting, unanimously, to tender the league presidency to Judge Karel, was a logical action. This move is in line with that of the M. A. B. A., which chose Judge "Bert" Hedding as its first executive, Judge Hedding having caught for the Wisconsin varsity nine in his law school days at Madison.

The temporary active officers of the M. A. B. A. are for majors: Larry Curry, McCoy-Nolans, president; Harry Zaidens, Lapham A. C., secretary; minors, E. Krause, South Shore A. C., president; P. Horrigan, Sisson & Sewells, secretary.

Meet to Complete Indoor League at "Y"

Final organization of the Industrial Indoor Baseball league will take place at a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. A constitution and a set of rules governing the games will be presented and adopted. The playing schedule will also be settled at this meeting.

The representatives of all the factories and business firms that desire to join the league are invited to attend this meeting. At the session held Saturday Scanlon Morris, Burgess Battery, Northwestern railroad shops, French Battery, Gisholt, Four Lakes Gas and Electric com-

K. OF C. LEAGUE

Ed Wirka rolled the highest individual scores in the Knights of Columbus bowling league at the Madison alleys last night with a series of 253, 195 and 201, totaling 649. O'Neill tallied second, with 580 points, scattering the maple for 213 twice, and 154 in his middle game.

O'Mally rolled 148, three times, Nic Behrend 163, Collins 138, Crowley 138, Cantwell 144, Heilman 173, Bradford 145, Moran 163, Crimmins 140, Malone 145, and Schulkamp 140.

RULES ON GRID PLAYS DECIDED

Sport Writer Takes Up Doubtful Points in Great College Game

Decision on the legality of the forward pass in the end zone was made in favor of the play by Walter Eckersall, sport writer and football referee. A touchdown should be given if the player actually catches the ball in the zone while all his person is in the field of play, he ruled.

Since the forward pass was adopted in 1906 the question of a player receiving a forward pass in the end zone has been a bone of contention. Some coaches and officials maintain the player must remain in the zone after the catch is made, regardless of whether he is knocked out of the field of play or carried over the end line by his own momentum.

This play should be ruled a touchdown if the player actually catches the ball in the zone while all his person is in the field of play. If the catch is made it does not matter whether he steps over the end line or side line extended through his own momentum. Neither does it matter if he is thrown over the end or sideline by a hard tackle. The rules specifically state the player's feet shall be taken into consideration when the legality of the play is questioned.

Another point which is not clear in the minds of all closely identified with football is the disposition of the ball when it is kicked into the goal posts from behind the goal line. If a kicker standing behind his goal line boots the ball into the cross bar or uprights and it bounds back over the goal line it is a free ball. If the oval is recovered by the kicking side back of its goal line it is a safety. If the defending team falls on the ball, it is a touchdown. In the event the ball bounds back over the fence and into the stands it is a safety regardless of who recovers it.

Passes from Behind Goal.

In connection with this point it is necessary to comment on forward passes made from behind the goal line. If a forward pass started back of the goal line strikes the goal posts, bounds back, and hits the ground, it is incomplete, and a safety results. If, however, one of the passer's side catches the ball as it bounded back from the posts it would be complete, the same as if caught in the field of play. If the catcher was tackled back of the line it would be a safety.

Another point which caused considerable discussion is in regard to a punted ball crossing the line of scrimmage and then being blown back over the skirmish line. If the ball crosses the scrimmage line and is blown back it belongs to the defending team until it is touched by one of that team, when it becomes a free ball. The kicker cannot put his team inside, could be eligible to recover it would be a man who was back of the kicker when the ball was punted.

It will readily be seen how important it is for the kicking team to down such a kicked ball. Should the oval be blown back, strike the ground, and then roll over the kicker's goal line, where it is recovered by one of the defending team, a touchdown would result.

FOR WISCONSIN TO REMEMBER

SOME day the American people are going to look back with amazement on the present days of private exploitation of natural resources in this country.

The great natural resources should belong to the people. It is indefensible to think that we have permitted small financial groups to make huge fortunes out of such public necessities as oil, coal and minerals.

The following is a statement taken from Reconstruction showing how huge profits are being made on our natural resources:

Nearly every great fortune in the United States is based upon private ownership and development of some natural resources of the country. In five years after the dissolution of the Standard Oil Co., the companies included in the Standard Oil combination, distributed in cash $407,401,626; in stock at par value $207,200,000; and subscription rights at par to the value of $40,900,000; a total of $655,000,000, while the total capitalization of these companies on April 15, 1912, was only $276,916,754.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue gives some interesting information as to the profits made by oil companies for 1916, which are the last figures of the bureau available. This was before profiteering in the name of patriotism became quite the most profitable profession in America for a little group of undemocratic Americans. In that year, corporations developing oil, gas, and salt wells had a net income of $236,795,209; during the same year, corporations extracting coal had a net income of $271,087,120. During the same year, corporations extracting gold, silver and other precious metals had a net income of only $14,907,086.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue also reports in 1916 the average net income of 2,554 mine owners and operators was $45,140. Eleven mine owners and operators had a net income in 1916 of over $1,000,000; 10 had a net income of over $1,500,000; and several a net income of over $6,000,000. The total net income of corporations extracting minerals was in 1916, $798,883,349.

These figures show clearly why American financiers are so anxious to be allowed to grab the people's natural resources. They show equally clearly why Congress should refuse to turn over the people's resources for the enrichment of the few and the impoverishment of the many.

It is therefore all the more to the shame of the members of the United States senate that they brazenly turned over to Standard Oil and other big aggregations what there is left of our natural resources by the passage of the oil leasing bill.

It is to the credit of Senator La Follette that he made a gallant fight against this measure.

Senator Lenroot has some explaining to do to the people of Wisconsin in the next election. His vote to turn over these natural resources to Standard Oil and its kindred organizations to organized wealth in this country is one that ought to preclude him from having the audacity to appeal for any progressive support in this state. His progressivism has been rather pale for some time,—and this vote should be the climax.

FIDO CARUSO APPEARS

HUNDREDS of people in the vicinity of the 800 block on Johnson street were awakened this morning about 2 o'clock by the inauguration of the autumnal opera season of Fido Caruso.

A vigorous dog tenor let go at this unearthly hour and he treated the neighbors in their nighties to encore after encore. He was in wonderful voice and there was nothing missing in his technique. Later he was joined by some friends and the program was varied with some trio and quartette work. The program lasted for an hour before Fido disappeared into an alley dressing room.

The dog is a great institution. He is a great pal. But when he becomes a night hawk our thoughts turn to a piece of gas pipe.

There are many dogs in the city of Madison that have become plain nuisances. People who own these dogs should not be permitted to trespass on the rights of others by having mongrels that become neighborhood pests. If these people can't take care of these dogs the police should be directed to the situation.

Dinner Stories

"Has he a lot of money?"
"No, but he has the next best thing."
"What is that?"
"The ability to make people think he's rich."

A member of his congregation was trying to console with Dr. Brounger for "the joyless existence" he must lead as a preacher of the gospel. Dr. Brounger laughed:
"Not everyone thinks that way," he replied. "In fact, I know a little girl who takes quite the contrary view. Just recently she asked her mother:

"Shall I invite Lucy to my party?"
"Yes, dear, she's the minister's daughter."
"Do ministers' daughters get invited to all the parties?"
"Yes, my dear."
"Gee, mother, I wish papa was a minister, 'stead of a miserable singer!"

GETTING SOME TESTIMONIALS

Last of Mormon Survivors Help To Compile History

Aged Burlington Resident Recalls Rise and Fall of Strang Colony; Valuable Papers Are Given to the State Historical Society; Wisconsin Came Near Being Seat of Utah Cult.

By FRED L. HOLMES

There is living at Burlington, Racine county, the last survivor in Wisconsin of the original Strang Mormon colony. His name is Winfield Watson. Recently through him the Wisconsin Historical society has come into possession of many valuable historical papers connected with the founding of the colony at Voree early Burlington and later the removal of that colony to Beaver Island, near Mackinac.

Scattered over Wisconsin there are at the present time several thousand persons of Mormon persuasion. Almost all of these are adherents of the reorganized church, Latter Day Saints. But a mere handful are followers of James Jesse Strang, the Wisconsin lawyer, who in the middle forties put himself forward as the divinely appointed successor of Joseph Smith and the mouthpiece of God to man in the present dispensation.

Strang was an able, even brilliant, man who possessed unusual oratorical gifts and a rare command of English. He was a native of Cayuga county, New York; on his mother's side, he was of pure Yankee ancestry; while his first American ancestor on the paternal side is said to have come to New Amsterdam in the company of the Duke of York to conquer that colony from the Dutch.

Strang Comes West. In 1816 when Strang was three years of age, his parents removed to Chataqua county and here the future prophet of Mormonism grew to manhood. It is a somewhat curious coincidence that western New York thus gave to the world its two Mormon prophets; for Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism, while a native of Vermont, grew to manhood at Palmyra, not far from Strang's birthplace, and here at Palmyra he had his first angelic revelations.

During his early manhood Strang pursued at different times a number of occupations. While working as a farm-hand he borrowed law books and mastered them and was soon admitted to the bar. He served as postmaster for a time at Ellington, New York, taught a country school, edited a newspaper at Randolph, and for a time took to the rostrum as a temperance lecturer. Soon after his admission to the bar Strang married Mary Perce, who had a brother living at Burlington, Wisconsin. Due to this connection Strang removed to Burlington in 1844 and here resumed the practice of law. Although he himself was probably unconscious of the fact, his life career was about to open to him here at Burlington.

The year following his removal to Wisconsin there came to Burlington several missionaries sent out from the headquarters of Mormonism at Nauvoo, Illinois. Strang fell under the spell of their influence quarters are at Lamoni, Ia. The Wisconsin church is supposed to have several thousand adherents at the present time.

Records Are Sought. Many valuable documents relating to the Strang settlement have just been obtained by the State Historical society.

Strang published a newspaper at Voree near Burlington from 1845 to 1856. This paper was supposed to be a weekly but was irregular in its issues and towards the end he issued a number of daily issues. The historical society had a few copies of it for years. F. E. Legler had access to them when he wrote his story 20 years ago. The society has now succeeded in getting all of the writings of the five years that the paper was published at Voree. The previous records of the church at Burlington have been obtained but where the record after the removal to Beaver Island is nobody knows.

Recently M. M. Quaff, secretary of the Wisconsin Historical society, accompanied Mr. Watson, who is now 70 years old, to Beaver Island reviewing the land marks of the Mormon city. Strang's printing office at Beaver Island is still standing and is used as a private residence.

PLAN MOTOR TRUCK LINE. MENASHA—Establishment of a motor truck freight line on a large scale to operate between Greer, Bay and Fond du Lac has received the backing of prominent business men in Fox River Valley cities and a company will probably be formed to launch the enterprise.

POLICE AND FIREMEN GET INCREASE. NEENAH—The city's council has voted a ten per cent wage increase to police and firemen here.

OBJECTS TO BRIDGE. APPLETON—A. W. Priest, one of the wealthiest men in Appleton, has threatened to enjoin the city from building a bridge across the Fox river at Lawe street to replace the old wooden bridge which has been closed some months. He said at a recent meeting that he did not care to pay taxes for the benefit of the few that would cross it. Not only have laboring men petitioned for the bridge for their convenience but the manufacturers have demanded it for fire protection. Mr. Priest advocates a viaduct near where he lives, although that wouldn't give relief to the water power.

PLAN ELABORATE SHOW. SHEBOYGAN—The 1920 show of the Sheboygan Poultry and Pet Stock Association will be the largest and best in the history of the organization, if the plans of the officers materialize.

Voice of the People

MR. WHEELER AGAIN. To the Editor of The Capital Times: It is surprising that so few people understand plain English (or is it that so many purposely misconstrue language, and pervert its meaning)?

Replying to the latest specimen of this genius (who, ashamed of his name, uses initials), allow me to occupy a little extra space, please, in answering his misstatements.

First, No one can point to one single sentence I have written at any time, which is a "knock against labor," as he asserts. Incidentally, will inform T. B. (once more) that I have been a laborer all my life.

Secondly, I have not at any time written one sentence "against editors who champion labor's cause." But, as one who saw the result of vindictive newspaper abuse, and slang whanging, over slave labor, I have suggested that calm discussion of economic problems, is a better course for those who speak, write, or in any way advocate reforms, unless they wish to stir up passions and provoke another "uncivil war."

As one who carried a musket three years because of rabid controversy over "slave" labor, I have urged that settlements of other labor problems should not and need not require the kind of arguments which some fiery orators and writers indulge in, to the detriment of their cause, and to the peril of our country.

Having run a populist campaign paper in Dakota, I know the temptation which one meets to give the other side fire and brimstone. But with a large element of violent characters, such stirring up of passions is dangerous (though possibly abusive epithets may be the only argument such people understand). It looks that way!

Now thirdly, T. B. (whoever he may be) by his own statements confirms the truth, that his wages now will purchase as much as when he was paid $1.50 per day. He can have his dozen eggs for an hour's work, just as he had it 10 years ago!

He can pay for a pound of bacon by working another hour.

Thirty-two hours' work will pay for as much coal as 40 did when coal was $6 per ton, according to my arithmetic. Of course "striking" does not buy much coal, or much nourishing food, at any price. So I would not advise that method of raising the wind. (If T. B. will read on first page, first column, of The Times, Saturday, he will see what ATTY. Gen. Palmer suggests.)

As I do not exactly know upon what "plane" T. B. imagines he is located, I can not claim to occupy the same plane. At any rate I have been aware that I was in the United States for 82 years and when even I write, I assume that some readers have sufficient intelligence to catch my meaning, even though I was "over educated" in a district school, until I was fifteen years old and learned a little about the "Three Rs." From a boy on I was a Free Soiler. When Fremont ran I was not a voter. But I was always interested in public affairs; and my right to express my views in different papers was never challenged, until T. B. was so discouraged over some mathematical propositions I recently submitted, that he considers me off his plane!

I certainly hope that some of your readers are not like him: unable to measure the price of eggs by the labor exchanged for them, instead of by nickels and dimes. Surely that should be easy for a laborer, "who labors." Purchasing power of labor is the true standard. Not gold, or silver.

That's not too deep, is it?
M. P. WHEELER.

TERRIBLE TESS

TESSIE THOMPSON IS ABOUT AS INQUISITIVE AS THE AVERAGE LITTLE GIRL.

On The Side

A LITTLE SLICE OF LIFE. A friend of ours named Joe Flynn rushed in all out of breath. And gasped: "I believe I have lost my pocketbook. I believe I have been frisked." He was very much excited. And we tried to quiet him. "Have you searched All your pockets?" we asked. "I have gone through every one. Eight or ten times—except one." "Which one?" we asked. "The left hip pocket. I haven't searched that one." "Why not?" we queried. "Well, I'll tell you," he said. "I haven't tried that pocket. And I'm not going to try it. Because if I should search that Last remaining pocket and The pocketbook shouldn't be there, I would drop dead, that's all."

"You ought to spank that kid," said our neighbor to his wife. "He has been cutting up all during dinner." The wife replied: "I'll not spank that boy on a full stomach." "Well," snapped the husband, "turn him over."

"Here is a wonderful husband," writes Frank Henry. "It is easy to see he is her first." The following extract from a new story is enclosed: "We needed a hook immediately for our screen door. My husband took a sardine-can key and shaped it into a hook by cutting half of the oval handle off and bending the straight piece to a curve and catching into the screw eye."

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

Some folks shake their heads at the fashions. And view scant dresses with squeals. They don't disturb me at my relations. Or keep me from my meals.

I scorn with such problems to grapple; Things might have been worse by some miles; If Eve hadn't eaten that apple, I shudder to think of the styles. —W. S. A.

Al Evans, the popular mine host of a hotel on Long Island (location deleted by advertising department), went down the road one day and stuck up a large sign reading, "One-Half Mile to Evans' Hotel." The first man to arrive after the sign was up walked in from a distant town.

"Al," he said, "that sign said it was a half-mile to your hotel from that point and I'll swear it is a good two miles."

"Well," drawled Al, "it's only a half-mile if you are coming in a good, fast car, but, of course, if you are walking it may be two miles."

A letter was thirty-seven years making a nine-block trip in Washington. It wouldn't go exactly fast to blame that on Mr. Barleson.

Speaking of strikes, we are unqualifiedly in favor of shorter hours for campaign orators.

CHOLERA AT OAKFIELD

FOND DU LAC—The malady which has been decimating herds of hogs in township of Oakfield was pronounced to be cholera on Friday by Dr. F. T. Purcell, veterinarian, sent here by the United States department of agriculture. Racial measures have been taken to stop the spread of the plague.
